Dear Parents/Carers

Your child's final GCSE English Literature examinations are now only six school weeks away. In school we are working closely with pupils to consolidate their knowledge and develop the skills they need to undertake these very challenging examinations. However, it is imperative that pupils are also revising at home.

There are a wide range of resources available to support pupils' revision and below are a list of materials that may help your child prepare for these exams.

In addition, the English Department at Cardinal Newman Catholic High School also have our own website. From here pupils can download practice questions, find links to online tutorials and access a range of study notes. The website address is cnhsenglish.dept.wordpress.com

We would appreciate your support in reinforcing to your child the importance of working hard, staying focused and revising properly for their examinations.

The results will be published on Thursday 24 August and we want all pupils to achieve results a grade they can celebrate and be proud of.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely
