

PARISH LIFE

Hello, I am the parish priest based at Saint John Henry Newman Church in Latchford.

I have been in Warrington for over 17 years, during which time I have also served as a governor at St Augustine's and Our Lady's.

I enjoy keeping up with football, walking, and reading, especially poetry.

I studied law before training for the priesthood, and I was a regular visitor to Oxford, where I became aware of John Henry Newman and his contribution to education.

A new chapter has opened in the story of the Catholic community in Latchford, Grappenhall, and Thelwall. Since the opening of our new church in June 2010, something new has begun, and generations to come will add to this ongoing story.

“Stand at the crossroads and look; ask for the ancient paths, ask where the good way is, and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls.”
Jeremiah 6:16

*Shrewsbury.....shall be a name
'as stirring to the heart as the glories we have lost'*
